

University of Crete

Joint Postgraduate Programme
BIOETHICS

Workshop

Biology, Ethics, Bioethics

Epistemological questions,
Global issues

Friday, 13 June 2008
6.00 a.m.

Saturday, 14 June 2008
10.00 p.m.

Xenia Cultural Center
Sophocles Venizelos 16, Rethymno

Programme*

Friday, 13 June 2008

18.00-18.30 Opening Remarks

First Session: Ethics and the Life Sciences

Chair: Irene Athanassaki, University of Crete

18.30-19.00 Steven Rose, Open University, U.K.
The seductions of neuroethics

19.00-19.30 Lefteris Zouros, University of Crete
Sociobiology, Mendel and Lysenko OR when we may say one is Ahead of his/her time?

19.30-20.00 Discussion

Saturday, 14 June 2008

Second Session: (Bio)Ethics and Politics: Universal Justice, Democracy

Chair: Pavlos Surlas, University of Crete

10.00-10.30 Konstantinos Papageorgiou, University of Athens
Patriotism and cosmopolitanism in the legitimization of war

10.30-11.00 Dionisis Drosos, University of Ioannina
Justice as 'artificial' virtue. Aspects of the Scottish debate on the moral foundations of justice

11.00-11.20 Break

11.20-11.50 Kostas Stamatis, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
World Social Justice

11.50-12.20 Antonios Manitakis, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
State and Democracy in the era of globalization

12.20-13.30 Discussion

* There will be simultaneous translation

Programme*

Third Session: World Bioethical Problems

Chair: Stergios Pyrintsos, University of Crete

17.00-17.30 Hilary Rose, Bradford & City University, U.K.

Thinking global acting local: Bioethics from below

17.30-18.00 Ilias Kouvelas, University of Patras

The extent of climate changes impact on human health, strongly depends on social factors

18.00-18.30 Nikos Panopoulos, University of Crete

The problem of asynchronous approvals of GM foods and the escalation of the cost of foods

18.30-19.00 Discussion

19.00-19.15 Break

Four Session: Methodological issues in Ethics/Bioethics: The principle of universalizability

Chair: George Marangos, University of Crete

19.15-19.45 George Karamanolis, University of Crete

The question of universalizability of ethical judgements in ancient philosophy

19.45-20.15 Dimitrios Doulakis, University of Crete

The principle of universalizability in Kant's practical philosophy

20.15-20.45 Discussion

20.45-21.00 End of the workshop

Closing remarks

Stavroula Tsinorema, University of Crete

Speakers-Chairs of Sessions

- Irene Athanassaki, Professor of Anosobiology, Department of Biology, Graduate Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, University of Crete
- Dimitrios Doulakis, Ph.D candidate, Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, University of Crete
- Διονύσης Δρόσος, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Department of Philosophy, Education, and Psychology, University of Ioannina
- Leuteris Zouros, Emeritus Professor of Biology, Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, University of Crete
- George Karamanolis, Lecturer in Ancient Philosophy, Department of Philosophy and Social Studies, Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, University of Crete
- Ilias Kouvelas, Emeritus Professor of Medicine, University of Patras
- Antonios Manitakis, Professor of Constitutional Law, Department of Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
- George Marangos, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Department of Philosophy and Social Studies, Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, University of Crete
- Nikos Panopoulos, Professor of Biotechnology of Plants, Department of Biology, Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, University of Crete
- Konstantinos Papageorgiou, Associate Professor of Philosophy of Law, Department of Law, University of Athens
- Stergios Pirintsos, Assistant Professor of Ecology, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, University of Crete
- Hilary Rose, Emeritus Professor of Social Policy, University of Bradford, Emeritus Professor of Physik, Gresham College, City University, London, U.K.
- Steven Rose, Emeritus Professor of Biology, Open University, U.K.
- Pavlos Sourlas, Professor of Philosophy of Law, Department of Law, University of Athens, Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, Member of the National Committee for Bioethics
- Kostas Stamatis, Professor of Philosophy of Law, Department of Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
- Stavroula Tsinorema, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Department of Philosophy and Social Studies, Director of the Joint Postgraduate Programme Bioethics, University of Crete

